

Blowing My Mind
(J. Scaturro)

It took a shock to open my eyes
A bomb went off blowing my mind
An empty box said everything
Our barren loft
I am crying

You know the way I do my hair, I like my tea
It's so unfair now that it's clear to me.

It took a shock to open my eyes
A bomb went off blowing my mind
A broken clock said everything
Our heart has stopped
I am dying

You know my skin and everything within
Finding you gone, i don't know how I'll go on

It took a shock to open my eyes
A bomb went off blowing my mind
Blowing my mind
Blowing my mind
